

This is a call for articles for the forthcoming number of the journal of humanities and social sciences (ISSN 0973-8737), an international refereed journal annually published by the Scottish Church College (Estd. 1830), Kolkata, affiliated to the University of Calcutta.

The next issue will be published in September 2018.

The theme of the number is: 'Tolerance and Democracy'.

In the age that we appear to be passing through, across the world, certain questions seem to constantly problematise our choices, our socio-political preferences, our way of understanding our past and what should be the present leading into an imagined future. Keeping in tune with these introspective interrogations we felt that the said theme is extremely relevant. The contributions would have the freedom to address the issue from a wide aspect taking into consideration theoretical, historical and current social-political contexts. We welcome constructive responses from our contributors.

Contributions are invited from researchers working in different fields of humanities and social sciences. Contributions must reach the editorial board latest by 31st January, 2018. Notes and references should follow as end notes and numbered serially. We invite research papers which should be original, hitherto unpublished, well-documented, consistent with the scope of the journal and should not normally exceed 5000 words including notes and references. The contributions should be emailed to:

sccjhss@gmail.com

It should be noted that we will publish only the first ten articles which receive positive referee report.
