CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

G20 CELEBRATIONS 2023: The group of twenty (G20) is the forum for international economic cooperation. It shapes and strengthens the global architecture and governance on all major international economic issues.

As India holds the Presidency of G20, the Ministry of Education, GOI had advised all Teacher Education Institutions to conduct events and programmes related to G20. A programme schedule was also given by the NCTE. From the schedule of the suggestive activities during the period 12.6.23 to 15.6.23 the Department of Teacher Education, Scottish Church College chose to work on Exhibition of paintings on different themes and Rangoli making competition.

On 14.06.2023 students submitted paintings on Teacher-Student relationship, Gender Sensitization, Mental Health and E-Learning. The paintings were exhibited in the Department. Another event on the same day was Rangoli competition on G20. Fourteen students were divided into seven groups to participate in the competition. Two teachers from the department acted as Judge. Pictures and participant list below--

Department of Teacher Education 23.02.2024

National Science Day: On 28th February 2024, science departments of the college in collaboration with IQAC arranged a lecture on Science and Pseudoscience in the MLB auditorium of the college. A poster exhibition was also organized by the science students.

On the occasion of National Science Day on 29.02.2024, students of the college participated in National Level Inter-College and University Poster Competition on Indigenous Technology for Viksit Bharat held at Vijaygarh Jyotish Ray College. Deblina Jana, a student of the Botany department, got a Special Appreciation Award.

Vigilance Awareness Session: On 27th of March, 2024, the college has participated in the vigilance awareness week which was conducted by Indian Oil Corporation Limited, in association with Fever 94.3 Radio FM. For this awareness drive, the college has organised an intra college skit competition on cyber crime. Three teams from the college performed in this competition.

Drama Workshop: The Drama Club organised a 5-Day Stet Workshop on 24.08.24, 25.04.24, 28.04.24, 29.04.24 and 30.04.24. The workshop was conducted on the basis of the play 'Dwairath' which was staged by Scottish Church College Drama Club.

The workshop was conducted by Ms. Arpita Ghosh, an eminent theatre personality and the director of 'Pancham Vaidik' and Mr. Subhrajit Dutta, famous Bengali serial and movie actor. The workshop was attended by 24 students.

Tattvam: The Mathematics Department of Scottish Church College organised the TATTVAM '24, on 27 April, a grand one-day festival that artfully intertwined modern mathematical prowess with a gilded drape of ancient aesthetics. With its evocative tagline, "যথাং গণিতং তথাং জীবনং" (As is mathematics, so is life), TATTVAM'24 beautifully adapted to the aesthetics of the legacy that the grandeur of Scottish Church College beholds. Drawing inspiration from traditional Indian knowledge and incorporating it into modern mathematics, the festival honoured the civilisational heritage while embracing the future with creativity and enthusiasm. TATTVAM'24 had a selection of seven distinct events. Notable highlights encompassed the Integration Bee and Differential Derby, designed to challenge and thrill math aficionados. For those in search of lighter amusement, the festival featured the Cricket Auction and Quadro-Cipher. Setting TATTVAM'24 apart is its masterful integration of intellectual exploration and creative expression, exemplified by events like Disparate Visions and Enigma Expedition. Furthermore, the festival also hosted the Scroll of Arguments, where riveting debates unfold in formats ranging from the dynamic turncoat to the profound Lincoln-Douglas. The festival featured insightful talks from guest speakers Prof. Arnab Chakraborty and Prof. Abhishek Adhikari, with their discussions on "Impartial Games" and "Cybersecurity Analytics: Leveraging Mathematical Methods for Advanced IT Protection," respectively. Drama Club: The Scottish Church College Drama Club has always been instrumental in nurturing the spirit of theatre among the students. The club has served as a platform to the students to showcase their talents in the field of performing arts. It is the dedication of the drama club to explore the theatrical talents of a student, by developing their skills and expressing their creativity. Our efforts are always to broaden our horizons by exploring the various subjects on drama; be it the art of acting or the elements of stagecraft, which develops the sense of theatre of a student.

EVENTS & FESTS PARTICIPATED BY THE CLUB:

- AGON'23: The AGON is the annual fest of Calcutta National Medical College which was held on 28th of September, 2023. Dwairath' is a period drama set on the lines of Mughal era. The story revolves around the four sons of Shah Jahan. The war of succession among these brothers led to one of the darkest chapters of history. Ultimately this rivalry among the siblings, turned into an ideological clash between Dara Shukoh and Aurangazeb. 'Dwairath' portrayed a message of vices, sibling rivalry, power struggle, religious conflict which is still relevant in the present day.

The captivating performance of the team made its way to achieve the choice of the critics and audiences for a special performance which was staged at Rabindra Sadan on 3rd of May, 2024. The team got a special training, under the guidance of eminent director, Turna Das, before the performance at Rabindra Sadan.

It is also extremely proud to proclaim that the members got nominations in various categories-

An insight into the sessions

Informative sessions mostly deal with a topic on which critical analysis is done from the perspective of art, history and literature.

In Group discussions, extempore a particular topic is chosen and all the members present, give their opinions on it thus sharing their perspectives and views. It improves voice modulation, prompt thinking and aims in building public speaking skills. Quiz sessions improve the general knowledge, prompt thinking and quick decision making of the members . Skill enhancement sessions help the members to deal with different problems and confusions they face while writing a piece and aims to provide easy solutions to them. Literary games sessions like Poetry slams, book advertisement, book charades prepare the members of the society to represent the college in various intercollege Literary events as well as works as a stress buster for the members amidst the hectic schedule of their studies.
